

Let me

---

Let me run wild like the wind,
Down on your long brown hair,
Let me see what lies beneath your smile,
See what are your secrets,
Discover your hidden treasures,

Let me touch your way,
Let me be yours today,
Let me hold you tonight,
Let me kiss on your sight,
Let me open your eyes,
Just for this once,
Forget everything else,
And just let me....

Let me save the love,
Save the hope and that last dream,
Of us together holding hands,

Let me complete you,
Let me embrace you,
And take you to the sky,
Away from all this lie,

Let me help you breathe,
For the very first time
Let me release those chains
And fly away with me,

Let me rest on your lap,
Give me one last chance,
Only one more dance,
And just let me...
